

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protection. I will go and get what I need when and if I need it. I don't want someone calling me at home to try and convince me to buy something that I don't want. I do not need help spending my money. I will decide myself.